CABIN CRUISE CANCUN

Upon arrival into Cancun's international airport, you will meet our shuttle to take you on a 15 minute ride to our departure base located at the Marina Hacienda Del Mar, www.marinahaciendadelmar.com, located at the north end of Cancun. We welcome you aboard with a cocktail as we get to know each other and discuss the plan for the week.

Cruising Day 1

After a morning breakfast we begin our first sail from Cancun's coast to Isla Mujeres, 'The Island of Women'. The story of Isla Mujeres provides a colorful history which explains how the island got its name. In 1517, when the Spanish expedition led by Francisco Hernandez Cordova, landed here they discovered a stone temple filled with female shaped Mayan idols. These idols represented the goddess Ixchel, the goddess of fertility. Today, Isla Mujeres has earned the reputation of being the region's more laid back and relaxing islands offering a quaint little downtown with local shops, beautiful beaches and restaurants. During this 2 hour sail to Isla Mujeres, we stop for a quick dip and some snorkeling before we arrive at Villa Vera Marina. Here we hop on a golf cart for a tour of the island, stopping to take in the sights of downtown followed by lunch back on the catamaran. After an afternoon of sailing around the island and exploring the beaches, we head back to the marina and enjoy cocktails prior to dinner and exploring the entertainment options of downtown Isla Mujeres.

Cruising Day 2

We awake to the smell of fresh coffee and enjoy a delicious breakfast prior to our sail to the island of Contoy. We break up this four hour sail with a stop at Coco Reef for some amazing snorkeling. Upon arrival into Contoy, our crew prepare lunch while they provide an overview of the island's attractions. Contoy is the home to the national park and sanctuary that makes this stop a bird-lovers delight. About 800 meters wide and 7 km long, the island's dense foliage provides ideal shelter for more than 100 species of birds. The parks visitor's center provides you with plenty of background of the island's habitat and you may want to explore the 27m high observation tower. Take a walk along one of the two interpretive trails and enjoy the day in this natural reserve. Afterwards we join up back at the catamaran for a fantastic dinner and cocktails as we enjoy an evening of spectacular star gazing.

Cruising Day 3

Today we sail around to the Oceanside of Contoy. Here we'll enjoy some fishing in hopes of securing a 'catch of the day'. After lunch we invite you to relax on the beach or snorkel just off the coast where you may encounter a wide variety of sea life including manta rays. These waters are also a popular location for whale shark viewing! One of the largest living fish species, the whale shark is a gentle giant and pose no danger to snorkelers and divers. They do pose a spectacular photo opportunity and can be a definite highlight of the day's activities.

Cruising Day 4

After breakfast, we set sail for Boca Iglesias. Here we'll view the ruins of a 16th century Spanish Colonial Church, where in 1523 Francisco Montejo Jr. led an expedition ashore and was attacked by the local Maya. To reach the ruins will be a day of adventure, but prior to our arrival we stop to snorkel in search of octopus and lobster. After lunch on board we start our journey to the Church. To reach the abandoned site of Boca Iglesias we navigate through the mangroves and walk through a dense jungle. During the hike, keep your eyes to the trees which are home to the local spider monkeys. Following our excursion we return to the yacht for a relaxing dinner and cocktails and set sail for our anchorage for the evening just off the pristine white beaches of Isla Blanca.

Cruising Day 5

After a morning enjoying the spectacular waters of Isla Blanca, we'll sail back to the southern end of Isla Mujeres. Here we'll visit a Tourtugranjia (turtle farm) and you can see hundreds of turtles in the various stages of life. After lunch we head back out for a day of sailing to Playa Norte. The relaxing uncrowded beach will be where we spend most of the day. Playa Norte is one of the region's most spectacular beaches with crystal blue and shallow calm waters. We dinghy in a cooler of cervezas and enjoy the sun and sand. Afterwards we get ready for a night out with dinner in town.

Cruising Day 6

Today will be our day in the hustle and bustle of downtown Cancun. After breakfast, we hoist the sails and head for Punta Nizuc. Located in the heart of the hotel zone of Cancun, Punta Nizuc sits atop of some of the Caribbean's best snorkeling. We give you the opportunity to explore Chitales reef which offers abundance of sea life. Or if you prefer, you may like to explore the hotels and shops of the beach as here you'll have every amenity at your fingertips rent a jet ski, take a ride on a parasail or people watch on Cancun's hottest beach! After a day on the beach of Cancun we sail back to our home base at Marina Hacienda Del Mar. Freshen up and then after dinner at the dock we'll arrange for transportation to take you to the center of town for an exciting evening of nightlife.

Departure Day

We wake to a wonderful bon voyage breakfast. We say our goodbyes and exchange emails to share our wonderful photos and memories of Cancun and the River Maya.
