CABIN CRUISE ANTIGUA & BARBUDA

Antigua (pronounced An-tee'ga) and Barbuda are located in the middle of the Leeward Islands in the Eastern Caribbean, roughly 17 degrees north of the equator. To the south are the islands of Montserrat and Guadeloupe, and to the north and west are Nevis, St. Kitts, St. Barts, and St. Martin.

Barbuda is one of those very few islands in the Caribbean that remains--and probably will remain for some time--so undeveloped as to seem positively deserted at times. With the exception of the guests of the island's small number of accommodations, the population seems largely to consist of the graceful Fregata magnificens, or frigate bird. As the birds possess a marked preference for the northwest lagoon, Barbuda's seemingly endless white and pink sand beaches are left to the peaceful wanderings of those lucky enough to sojourn here.

SAMPLE ITINERARY:

Day 1

Jolly Harbour Marina. On your first day, arrive at our base in Jolly Harbour Marina. The Marina is a perfect start point for your cruise; it is home to several bars, restaurants, a large supermarket, liquor store, customs, a fresh water swimming pool, 18-hole golf course, banks and a fuel dock. After your boat briefing, leave the dock and sail north to Dickenson Bay. A bustling, mile long beach and home to several bars and restaurants. All perfect for sundowners and enjoying some stunning sunsets to the west.

Day 2 and 3

From Dickenson Bay sail north to Barbuda to reach Barbuda when the sun is high in the sky. Pre-book your frigate bird sanctuary tour with Goldilocks and pre-order fresh lobster or fish to be delivered to you. Anchor at Low Bay for your first night and enjoy stunning sunsets

Day 3

Sail from Low Bay around to Coco Point – another favourite anchorage especially if there is any northerly swell. Snorkel, kayak or simply relax with a good book.

Day 4

Sail from Barbuda to the east coast and Green Island and Nonsuch Bay. Green Island is a beautiful island, completely uninhabited and perfect for that getaway anchorage. Nonsuch Bay is home to Harmony Hall; an art gallery and Italian restaurant set high overlooking the bay. Enjoy cocktails in a converted sugar mill. Nonsuch Bay is also home to Nonsuch Bay Resort; breakfast, lunch and dinner can be had at this waterfront resort.

Day 5

From Nonsuch Bay, sail to English Harbour or Falmouth Harbour. English Harbour is home to Nelson's Dockyard which is a fully restored 18th century working dockyard. In days gone by, Nelson would keep his fleet here and there is a museum dedicated to his memory and has some fascinating exhibits. There are many restaurants in this area and the dockyard itself has some pretty places to have a coffee or dinner. If you enjoy diving, why not join a group departing from English Harbour and visit some of the many dive sites off the south and south west coast. Dinghy ashore and enjoy a chocolate Martini at Skulduggery Café, or have dinner at Cloggy's Restaurant; famous for their ice cold rose wine and yachtie atmosphere! Marvel at the mega yachts and super yachts.

Day 6

From here, sail south to Carlisle Bay. Carlisle Bay is a very pretty bay with lush vegetation on the surrounding hills.

Day 7

From English or Falmouth Harbours, sail south around the west coast of Antigua and drop your anchor at Darkwood Beach. Arguably the best Pina Colada's served here on this beautiful and unspoilt white sand beach! This is not an overnight anchorage so why not sail north and pick up a mooring ball in Jolly Harbour for your last night's dinner.
