CABIN CRUISE TORTOLA & BVI

From Tortola to virgin Gorda

1 an half hour

Green mountain and white bays characterize Virgin Gorda, there aren't villages but only some houses, an airport and a lot of boats. Known for "Baths", transparent and excelsior waters. Who has seen Corsican cliffs of Lavezzi's island in Bonifacio's mouths, can have an idea: sailing boat can be anchored in the one of the most beautiful bays in the world. In a part of one kilometre of coast, enormous circles granite rocks dip in white sands, crating caves and natural swimming pools and palms compete in height with imposing rocks. In north of Nort Sound, you can relax at famous Bitter End Yacht Club bay.

From Virgin Gorda to Anegada

2 and half hour

Anegada is surrounded by big coral reef with difficult passages, in fact it's needed authorisation for landing place. The landscape is wonderful with a rich fauna: pink flamingos, herons, iguana which could reach more than one meter of length. Numerous wreckages, among old and new one, imprisoned in the corals and maybe something hide important treasures in its holds. Another reason for diving in this beautiful depths. Island is a white sand strip long 20 kilometres and large under three kilometres. Higher top is six metres

From Anegada to Jost van Dyke

3 and half hours

The islands have the same name of legendary pirate: flying Dutch. It remains savage and offers a lot of quiet small landing place and beautiful depth for diving. A casual atmosphere, wanted on island, is best appreciated with a glass of rum and a background guitar calypso.

From Jost Van Dyke to Norman Island

1 and half hour

Green, nearly deserted, full of caves, called "treasure's island", reconfirm its legend about pirates and hide treasures. Here is possible find more an good landing places. In the night is very suggestive to drink something on "William Thornton", an ancient vessel approached southeast of The Bight.

From Norman Island to Cooper island

1 and half hour

Principals landing place are on Manchineel Bay north west of the island. The place is so called for numerous poisons fruit trees on the bays, yellow green apples whose juice can succeed in scottar you if touched.
