CABIN CRUISE ST. VINCENT AND GRENADINES

From Blue Lagoon (ST. VINCENT) to Bequia (Admiralty bay)

1 and a 1/2 hours

The arrival is at Admiralty bay, on the Isle of Bequia. On this island, old traditions, such as the building of craft-made boats on the beach, are still preserved. Wonderful models of these boats can be purchased at the shops in Port Elisabeth. In addition to clear water, the great appeal of this small creek is the "old English" atmosphere which one can still breathe. The absence of an airport preserved these places from a wild tourist development. Its small hotels and bars are in the typical colonial style too. In the small creek of Friendship bay one has the chance to bathe and relax.

From Bequia to Mustique (Britannia Bay)

1 and a 1/2 hours

Mustique, "the VIP island". On this island there are the villas of personalities such as Paul Newman and Mick Jagger. It is likely to meet them in one of the bars on the beach or for an appetizer at the Basil 's bar. In case of overnight stay in Mustique, we suggest taking an appetizer or having dinner on the terrace of the restaurant on the hill overlooking the bay (Firefly).

From Mustique Britannia Bay to Canuan

2 and a 1/2 hours

A few miles southwards, there is Canuan, a barren, wild but very charming island. The most beautiful place for mooring is "the Pool". Rameau Bay is also a beautiful place where to moor. It is excellent to go for walks and its wonderful beaches offer fantastic views.

From Canuan to Paradiso in Tobago Cays

1 hour

Tobago Cays is the most spectacular anchorage spot of this itinerary and one of the most enchanting places in the world. Everybody dreams visiting this group of four small islands with shallow water protected by a long horseshoe-shaped coral reef and with an excellent sea-floor.

From "Tobago Cays" to Mayreau – Salt Whistle Bay

1/2 an hour

Salt Whistle Bay, on the north-western coast of Mayreau, is a must. It is a very sheltered small reek where one can bathe in a natural coral pool. The restaurant overlooking the beach is very romantic.

Towards Petit St. Vincent

1 hour

Going through Union Island and Palm Island one arrives at Petit St. Vincent, where the tiny island that only has a palm-tree and a straw sunshade parasol can be admired. At 10 minutes' sailing, there are two small sandy islands: Pinese and Mopion.

From Petit St. Vincent to Sandy Island (Carriacou)

1 hour

This is another wonderful tiny uninhabited island with beaches and palm-trees.

From Carriacou to Palm Island and Union Island

1 hour

Clifton, the busy main port of Union Island, has a cosmopolitan atmosphere and is the sailing centre of the Southern Grenadines. There are several supermarkets and boutiques. One can visit the shark collection in the pool of the Anchorage Hotel. It is the ideal place for a drink or a good meal. Palm Island: fine white sand, an unreal atmosphere, an island one must visit.
